INVITATION

AsktheFM and Cabinet: EU nationals event

Scotland's future in Europe – what the EU Referendum means for EU nationals living, working and studying in Scotland

Following the EU referendum, First Minister Nicola Sturgeon and her Cabinet are holding a public event to meet EU nationals living, working and studying in Scotland.

The First Minister and her Cabinet Secretaries will undertake a question and answer session to give nationals of other EU member states who live in Scotland the opportunity to discuss the referendum result and what it means for them.

The event will be held on 17th August 2016 from 11.30am at the Edinburgh Corn Exchange (10 New Market Road, Edinburgh, EH14 1RJ).

At end of the discussion, the audience will be invited to join members of the Cabinet for light refreshments. The event is expected to end by 1pm.

To register for the event please visit the following webpage:
